FROM BRIGHTON, IND.

Brother Fox of Peru, Ind., came here to hold a two or three weeks meeting up to date, November 24. He is still holding forth the glad-tidings with power and we are happy to say his labors have not been in vain. I have made the good choice and have said they would walk the narrow way to glory. And the writer has much reason to rejoice and praise God that one of the number already came, is a loving daughter. We look for more to join the band to-night. Quite a number are under conviction and what the end shall be God only knows. Would to God they may come before the meeting closes. Yes we can hardly see how people can refuse to come under such preaching as Brother Fox is giving us by the help of God. He has preached every night since he begun, except one rainy night, and then he had gone to the Sanctuary. The attendance has not been as large at times as it should have been, but people are becoming more interested every evening and give good order and attention to the word. At 9 P. M. after evening services, two more came out. One of these a loving daughter; and so the good work goes on. The meeting may continue over Thanksgiving. To-day, November 26, one more has said, she wants to be counted with the number. Up to date 9 have come.

FROM ZION HILL CHURCH.

By request I will report our series of meetings held at this place and conducted by brother G. W. Rench of Milford, Ind., lasting nearly three weeks closed on Thursday night, Nov. 28, with five additions and one addition one week previous to the series of meetings. Two were received by baptism and four by relation. We truly feel very much encouraged and revived over these meetings held at this place, considering the opposition and prejudice that has been prevailing against us at this place, we had a remarkable good meeting. And eternity alone can reveal the good seed that has been sown in the hearts of the people during these meetings by our highly esteemed Brother Rench who delivered the word of God in a manner which proves it sharper than a two edged sword. And we feel to thank him for his devotion and earnest work while with us. Through his kind and loving way of presenting the Gospel he has won the esteem of the church and community. May success crown his efforts is our prayer. Your sister in Christ.

NOTES FROM THE WORKSHOP.

After a long silence I will chronicle a few notes. With not the best of health, and more work than we were really able to do, was the main cause of our delay. But, nevertheless, we are on praying ground, and interceding terms with our Lord and Master.

Our charge at Roanoke is strong in faith, and working for the Master. On account of other meetings we were obliged to postpone our protracted meeting until a later date.

The Sabbath-school is alive, with an average of about seventy.

AUBURN:—The Lord is blessing the church at Auburn. The people are zealous, and determined to win. This organization has stood the storms, trials, until the star of hope shines brightly on their pathway. At a previous appointment we found one of the faithful sisters sick. She desired to be anointed. The request was complied with, and at present, while not well, is improving. We hope and trust the Lord will raise her up.

We were made the recipient of a lovely quilt. The good sisters, with the assistance of their lady friends, were the donors. They worked earnestly, but kept the secret unto themselves, until at the close of a Sunday morning service, when in the presence of the whole congregation the gift was presented to us. Sister Mason, with appropriate remarks, performed the ceremony which made us the possessors. It brought them over twenty-five dollars before they gave it to us. This sum they cast into the treasury. As soon as we are conveniently situated we will commence a series of meetings here if the Lord permits.

This class informs me through their trustees, that they have raised the money for me for another year, so by the help of God and the church I will serve them. Ours has been a pleasant year, peacefully, successful, my salary all paid up. Of course I have no excuse of not accepting. Pray for us.

FROM ADRIAN, MO.

Having been silent for some time I thought I would write a few lines for the EVANGELIST. We commenced a series of meetings Nov. 15, with brother J. R. Keller as our revivalist. We have good interest and growing congregations. We have our services in the Christian church in Adrian. The services begin at 7 o'clock and we have song and prayer till 7:30. Brother Keller commenced a series of doctrinal sermons last night. The series will continue all through next week and into the next. Pray for our success. Your sister in Christ.

ANNIE SHOWALTER.

FROM THE GROVE CHURCH.

Brother J. W. Fitzgerald began a series of meetings at the Grove church, five miles south of Uniontown on Sunday, Nov. 17, and continued during the week. On Saturday evening the writer came and assisted in the meetings. When the invitation was extended one came out on the Lord's side, and during the morning services another one stood up for Jesus and said by her words and actions that she was willing to accept him as her Saviour and Redeemer. In the evening we held communion services which were very solemn and impressive. The weather being very unfavorable, some of the members were not present. The meetings will continue for some time. We had the pleasure of meeting for the first elders J. G. and William G. Gans, and we had a pleasant and profitable meeting. We thank the Brethren for the kindness and hospitality. Let us all pray the Lord to bless the efforts being put forth for the salvation of sinners.

FROM LOUISVILLE, O.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 14, we were agreeably surprised by the members of the Louisville church calling at our home fairly loaded with the good things of earth. Things that play such a prominent part; in bringing happiness to every home, and are no where more appreciated than in the home of the minister. But our larder was not only replenished and our granary filled, but the preacher was presented with a very handsome wallet, with instructions to purchase for himself a suit of clothes. We suppose that he might be the better qualified to stand before his congregation. Language fails us to express our gratitude to these kind people. I have been weak and unworthy, and yet they have apparently overlooked it all. And it is a source of much comfort to me at the close of my third year's work to realize that the church at Louisville manifests such an appreciation of my feeble efforts. May God abundantly bless them, and the Brethren ministers and churches everywhere is my prayer.

J. L. KIMMEL.

FROM M'VEYTOWN, PA.

I have been preaching one week at this point. We have large and attentive audiences. On Sunday night Miss Ida Himelsbaugh came forward for baptism. Do not know how long I shall continue. The opposition is great, but dying away.
